It would be nice if we received some news to put in this newsletter. So if you have something, please contact us by email at: vicepresident@baulkocricicket.com.au

The Grapevine:

- Good to see the Sporto Meat Raffle sledger win a meat tray last week! Well done Sloggy. Must be a pain at home if his number does not come up!
- Speaking of meat tray winners - what is going on here - Jeremy Billings wins the big tray and then swaps with Max who won a small tray!
- Well done to the President who was averaging 200+ after 2 rounds. But he dented that in round 3!
- A nice effort from Tim Cheshier of A Res at Monty Bennett, who managed to protect his stumps, and go on to carry his bat in an innings of 115 no. Second century this season! Well done. He was well supported by Ishmam Masud who made 86 batting at #10!
- Congratulations to Harrison King & Luke Perkin who are representing their region in the NSW PSSA Championship at Bathurst this week. Michael Blinman will also be in attendance - representing MacKillop in the Championships.
- Who is the bigger Facebook terror - David Banks or Andrew McLellan? I think Schicky wins comfortably.
- Michael Bellam commenced the NSW DCA competition very well. In round 1 of the Watson Shield, he made 159 no. All six (6) Parramatta teams won in round 1.
- It was good to see PDCA Executive Officer Eric Myatt has returned from his holiday. A very relieved fill in is so thankful. Where are all those late regos coming from?
- PDCA Board Chairman Ray Horder damaged his knee and now requires an operation, after the blood clot has dissipated! Just shows, that whilst your head may feel 35, your body does not!
- It seems the seniors are pretty slack at writing match reports for the Owzatt. Come on lads, get moving.
- Wenty Waratahs have Clare Koski playing A Grade this year. Clare is the NSW Breakers wicket keeper-batsman. Any relation to Ward of B2's?
- Who will get the nod for the first Ashes Test - George Bailey, James Faulkner, Usman Khawaja, Phil Hughes, Sean Marsh?
- The meat raffle back at the Sporto is going well. Thanks to all who have turned up to sell tickets when rostered and to Leigh Griggs for running it every week!

Late Registrations must be with the registrar by the Tuesday before the round.

The Dunce of the Month Award:

Simons Says: Six and Out: The Indian player (Darwan is it?), who was mimicking Shane Watson by hobbling around after Watto did his hamstring! Pretty cruel, but then again Watto does make a habit of getting injured!
