

AT THE CREASE

Edition 3. No 4: December 2013

Vale John Treloggen:

Former Baulkham Hills Secretary John Treloggen passed away in Perth recently. John was Secretary from 1978 to 1982. BHCC sent flowers to his family & Life Member Terry Webb, who was Treasurer during this period, attended the funeral.

The club was going through a tough period financially during this time and John was part of the team that turned it around.

Competition Dates: The last round for 2013 is a two dayer - Saturday December 14 & 21.

Seniors return on 11 January and play four (4) one days (Jan 11, 18 & 25 & Feb 1).

Juniors return with a one dayer on February 1.

The Grapevine:

- Who is the B2 player who went out to bat with his mobile in his pocket? Did not know he had it until, whilst on strike, it rang! Actually, I think he missed the first call and it rang again.
- You hit a six and your team claps. You raise your bat, thinking you have brought up your 50 with that shot. But they are just clapping a good shot. You are only 48. Still, he got to raise the bat when he made 50!
- Apologies to the Pres. Gave him a hard time for getting a duck in the last newsletter. So he went out and made 96 next dig. Cop that!
- Well done to Jason Currey, A Res keeper, who took 7 catches last round. And he still complained others took catches off him! Keeper catch at deep long on! Like to see that!
- How about the U16/1. They won outright on Saturday. Bowled the opposition out for 25, and then made 2/101 (with #10 & #11 opening). Put the opposition back in with 65 mins left and bowled them out for 25. Well, we must note the opposition only had 9 players. But still a great performance!
- Fine tin please - an A Reserves player on Saturday ran 20m to take a catch about 1m in front of another team mate only to drop it cold.
- And again, with memories of Steve Waugh & Jason Gillespie - two B7 players had a collision whilst taking a catch (sorry - dropping a catch after the collision). Some blood was spilt and the bowler, our Secretary Rick Thomas was ready to spill more!
- We hear that Chris Hush was 40 mins late to the game last Saturday, because he was held up looking at table arrangements for his upcoming wedding.
- Also in the A Res, Ish was meant to arrive at 3pm, but his boss didn't leave him the keys to lock up at work... so he ended up arriving at 4.28pm... fielded for 1 over... then went off for drinks. The umpire proceeded to tell him "I hope you weren't planning on bowling today.... because you're too late".
- B1 had a tough day fielding on Saturday, especially when the nick to the keeper (which was given not out) was so loud, the barman at the Sporto appealed.
- A big night at the meat raffle last Saturday - record takings. Well done to sellers Leigh Griggs & Josh Rich (B1).
- The meat raffle continues to be run under difficulties, with the "Jimmy Anderson" sledger giving it to MC just because his numbers don't come out. It's hard with 7 thumbs! Sally, please come back! It may be that Michael Clarke will be brought in to "discuss" the situation. Beware!
- PDCA are looking for their missing stumps and mallet. Apparently the boss is on the prowl. He knows where they are, just too lazy to get them. And they are taking up space in the boot of my car!
- Good luck to David Banks after his recent surgery on ingrown toe nails! And good to see Dane Sparks back playing after a long term injury suffered on a buck's party!
- With his long hair and rather large mo, Roger Deane looks like a 70's "movie star"!
